

SKYE MICHIELS

COMPASS | NATIONAL HEAD OF AGENT DEVELOPMENT

|| Igniting sparks. Empowering leaders. Cultivating Kindness."

Skye Michiels is here to connect, empower, and cultivate kindness. He is a dad, entrepreneur, award-winning real estate professional, and motivational speaker.

Serving as the National Head of Agent Development at Compass, Skye is currently creating an agent training curriculum based on the principle that real estate is more about creating connection and caring for people than it is about selling houses.

Skye is also the founder and host of the popular motivation and accountability group, The 6AMERS, which brings together thousands of agents across the country in the early hours every week to learn frameworks for developing a healthy mindset, reaching their goals, and achieving their own happiness.

MISSION/VALUES

Skye's mission is to cultivate kindness, empower leaders, and ignite the sparks to generate massive happiness. He helps leaders propel their teams with positive mindsets to improve not only their work but also their internal culture and lives.

VISION

A world in which people see love and kindness as the source of strength and power.

Real Estate with Heart Coming Fall 2022

Real Estate with Heart is a comprehensive guide to building effective teams that align with your personal values and concept of success, not anyone else's.

Skye Michiels stepped into real estate as a teacher looking to make some extra cash. His side hustle turned into a passion and a full-time career—with powerful results. But he found there wasn't much information on how to find growth or build a team in the industry. And it was so easy to get caught up in others' ideas of achievement, rather than finding success on his terms.

After launching his own team and businesses, and training countless agents, he's written a book to fill those gaps and share what he's learned.

With flexible guidelines, firsthand accounts, and invaluable insights that apply to teams of all sizes, Skye provides a custom-built framework to launch your team or take it to the next level—and do it all with heart.
